

Track II Network of ASEAN Defence and Security Institutions (NADI) Workshop
“ASEAN Centrality in an Era of Great-Power Competition”
 16-17 December 2021 via CISCO Webex

TENTATIVE PROGRAMME

Technical Dry Run (Wednesday) 15 December 2021
Attire: Business Attire Attendees: Meeting Coordinators and Technical Coordinators
TIME Manila (GMT+8)	ACTIVITIES	REMARKS
0900 - 1100	Pre-test of Videoconference system and dry run with meeting and technical coordinators	A WhatsApp Group will be created for meeting coordinators and a separate WhatsApp Group for technical coordinators.

Day 1 (Thursday) 16 December 2021
Attire: Business Attire Attendees: NADI delegates
TIME Manila (GMT+8)	ACTIVITIES	REMARKS
0800 – 0900	Technical Test	For meeting coordinators and technical coordinators
0900 – 0930	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Call to order ● Introduction of NADI Institutions ● Group photo 	All delegates
0930 – 0940	Opening Remarks Archimedes H Viaje, PhD, MNSA, CESE President National Defense College of the Philippines
0940 – 0950	Adoption of Agenda	All delegates
0950 – 1040	Session I:	(10 minutes per presentation)

	The Treaty of Amity and Cooperation (TAC) and the International Rule of Law The NADI participants are encouraged to discuss how their respective countries adhere to the TAC and uphold international rule of law, all of which contribute to peace and stability in the region. Presentation may include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The role that TAC and international rule of law play in the promotion of international cooperation 2. TAC and international rule of law as factors in deepening multilateral cooperation within and outside ASEAN 3. Efforts to promote internationally recognized norms of behavior 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Brunei (SHHBIDSS) 2. Indonesia (IDU) 3. Singapore (RSIS)
1040 – 1110	Discussion and Recommendation	All delegates
1110 – 1220	Session II: ASEAN Political-Security Community (APSC) and Individual Country Relations with Major Powers NADI participants are encouraged to discuss the important role of ASEAN Political-Security Community in regional peace and stability. Discussion is in the context of the dynamics between and among major powers. Presentation may include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The implications for ASEAN community-building of the emerging new-security-oriented multilateral platforms in the region such as the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue (or the “Quad”) and the Australia-United Kingdom-United States Security Partnership (“AUKUS”) 2. The effects of individual ASEAN member-states relation with major 	(10 minutes per presentation) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Indonesia (CSS TNI) 2. Myanmar (OCAFT) 3. Philippines (NDCP) 4. Thailand (SSC) 5. Viet Nam (IDS) 6. Malaysia (NDUM))

	powers (such as the US and China) on the sustainability of APSC or vice versa 3. The risks and opportunities for ASEAN brought about by China-US competition in defence technology, diplomatic influence, and regional strategic presence
1220 – 1300	Discussion and Recommendation	All delegates
1300 – 1430	Lunch Break
1430 – 1530	Session III: National Economic Interests and ASEAN Cooperation NADI participants are encouraged to share how they view international rivalry between major countries' economic institutions and economic initiatives, as well as how these affect each ASEAN state's national economic interests. This might include discussion on how ASEAN cooperation plays out in a situation where nations have divergent or convergent economic interests. Presentation may include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Competing international economic/financial initiatives/institutions such as the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank (WB) vs. Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB); Comprehensive and Progressive Trans-Pacific Partnership vs. Belt and Road Initiative, among others 2. ASEAN centrality in relation to economic interests of each ASEAN member-state towards major powers 	(10 minutes per presentation) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Cambodia (GDPFA) 2. Lao PDR (MSHD) 3. Malaysia (MiDAS)
1530 – 1600	Discussion and Recommendation	All delegates
1600 – 1610	Consideration of Recommendations for the Chairman's Report	All delegates

1610 – 1630	Other matters	All delegates
-------------	---------------	---------------

Day 2 (Friday) 17 December 2021
Attire: Business Attire Attendees: NADI delegates
TIME Manila (GMT+8)	ACTIVITIES	REMARKS
0900 – 0930	Technical test	For meeting coordinators and technical coordinators
0930 – 1030	Consideration of Chairman’s Report	All delegates
1030 – 1045	Coffee Break
1045 – 1200	Consideration of Chairman’s Report (Continuation)	All delegates
1200 – 1210	Closing Remarks Archimedes H Viaje, PhD, MNSA, CESE President National Defense College of the Philippines
IF	Remarks from Sultan Haji Hassanal Bolkiah Institute of Defence and Strategic Studies (SHHBIDSS) for its NADI Chairmanship for 2021	Brunei (SHHBIDSS)
IF	Group Photo	(Not later than 12:30 PM Manila Time)
End of the Workshop		