1. Introductions

With 22 threat groups pledging support to the Islamic State (IS), a new threat landscape is emerging in the Southeast Asian region. We will delineate the Al Qaeda-IS centric hybrid threat and discuss strategic response. With our partners, we will be sharing the findings of Singapore's International Centre for Political Violence and Terrorism Research and Dr. David P. Trudil will conduct the table top exercise.

2. Registration

Participation for this workshop is by invitation ONLY and no registration fees are required.

3. Participants

Participants are from government agencies and a handful of academic specialists.
